Turks Claim to Have Whipped Insurgents in a District.

FOUR HUNDRED DIED

Assistant Conductor Is Alleged to Have Caused Dynamite Bomb Explosion by Which Several Fatalities Resulted.

Constantinople, Sept. 4.—Consul Ravondal telegraphs from Beirut to Minister Leischman that the authorities there have been actively seeking the assassin of Vice Consul Mageissen, but the consul is not able to state the party is among the persons already arrested.

The report circulated by a news agency on Sept. 1 in the United States that a balloon bomb had been found near the palace is utterly without foundation.

Turkish official reports indicate complete success of military operations against insurgents in Kilissura district. Over 400 insurgents are said to have been killed.

The agent here of the Hungarian steamship line has gone to Burgas to investigate three explosions which occurred Wednesday on the Austrian steamer Vaskapu soon after that vessel left the port of Burgas on her way to Constantinople, resulting in the death of twenty-nine persons. Cause of the explosions is still in doubt.

It is now said that the assistant conductor on the sleeping car was the author of the bomb outrage on Aug. 27, when the eastbound daily express from Buda Pest to Constantinople was blown up near Kuleli and seven persons killed and fifteen others injured. He left the train at Philippopol and was arrested there.

The sultan announces the gift of 50,000 woolen coats to troops concentrated in Roumelia, and in an official note issued by the prefecture of this city the population is invited to contribute flannel vests, boots, socks, etc., which are required by soldiers in the field.

MORE DETECTIVES.

American Minister Warned That Our People Are In Danger.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Minister Leischman has informed the state department that some of the European powers have landed marines at Constantinople. If the lives of Americans there become endangered the United States government will also send a detachment of marines to Constantinople. Minister Leischman also stated that in order to protect the lives of occupants of the American legation and the American consulate general at Constantinople detectives had been added to the force there. He said he had taken this precaution because of a warning sent him by the sultan that an uprising was feared. Landing of marines has not been verified.

No British Marines Landed.

London, Sept. 4.—No British marines have been landed at Constantinople so far as the foreign office is informed, but it is said that if the British embassy requires protection the ambassador is authorized to call on the commander of the British guardship for guards.

TRIED TO ESCAPE.

Four Convicts Shot, Two of Whom Will Probably Die.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 4.—Four convicts were shot at the Pratt mines prison at 1 o'clock Friday morning in an attempt to escape. The wounded men are Tom Fay, shot in the leg; John Brewer, wounded in back; Richard Kinnebrook, shot in abdomen and kidneys, and Thomas Melzin, wounded in shoulder. Brewer and Kinnebrook will probably die. All are white and were serving terms ranging from two to twenty years. They secured a quantity of dynamite and blew an opening in one end of the prison. They ran through this and hurled sticks of dynamite at the guards. The latter opened fire with Winchester and succeeded in preventing what might have been a wholesale delivery. J. H. Emery of Pike county, serving twenty years, was the only one to escape. The crowd was led by Tom Fay, who was the youngest member of the famous Muller Duncan gang of safeblowers.

Killed by Lightning.

Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 4.—Mrs. John Rhodes, living near Wood, in Washita county, was struck by lightning while milking and instantly killed. The same bolt also killed two cows and a calf.

Bail Denied.

Lawton, Okla., Sept. 4.—Rube St. Clair had his preliminary examination for the killing of his brother-in-law, S. B. Smith, an ex-policeman of this city, on Saturday last. He was held to the grand jury and denied bail.

Billy Buck Winner.

Providence, R. I. Sept. 4.—The Roger Williams $10,000 stake for 2:14 trotters was the feature of the third day's racing in the Grand circuit meeting at Narragansett park. Billy Buck, a bay gelding, owned and driven by E. F. Geers of Memphis, Tenn., carried off the big purse, winning in three straight heats. There was an attendance of 12,000.

Reliance Wins the Third Race and Does it Easily.

SHAMROCK NO EQUAL

Some Londoners Think It Would Be a Good Idea For Canada to Endeavor to Capture What Lipton Longs After.

New York, Sept. 4.—Reliance, the American cup defender, Thursday won the third and final race and the series for that famous set trophy, the America's cup. In a dense fog which prevented vision beyond 200 yards she finished the race at 5:30:02 amid the acclamations of the assembled fleet. Shamrock III, after running for more than an hour in the fog, missed the finish line, passed by it and then turned to it from the opposite direction. As the Reliance was being towed through the fleet of yachts, ensigns fluttered from her truck and spreaders in celebration of her victory, the Shamrock III did not cross the finish line. As often said of the historic race, when the America won the cup, there was no second.

This successful result was achieved only after four futile attempts to sail off the final race and after the outcome had been admitted by even Sir Thomas Lipton to be a foregone conclusion. This was the eighth attempt to sail a race. After one fluke Reliance won the two following races, one by seven minutes and three seconds, and the other by one minute and nineteen seconds. A week ago Thursday the first attempt to sail the third race failed and attempts have been made every day this week. On these occasions Reliance led Shamrock III to the finish line by two miles, but failed to reach it before the expiration of the time limit of five and a half hours. This victory means that the cup is destined to remain in America until England is able to produce a genius equal to Herreshoff in yacht designing.

Rarely, if ever, has there been a more spectacular finish than the Reliance's Thursday. After racing more than an hour at terrific speed through a blinding fog, Reliance burst through the wall of mist upon the vision of the spectators on the fleet assembled at the finish line, and heeling under a great balloon jib topsail, until her lee rail was awash, flew across the finish line almost before the spectators could determine for a certainty that it was her.

FINAL DEFEAT.

London Sympathizes With the Owner of the Challenger.

London, Sept. 4.—The final defeat of Sir Thomas Lipton's cup challenger, Shamrock III, was received in London with listlessness. Most of the afternoon papers published a special edition, announcing the result of the cup race but the announcement had already been discounted by the dispatches giving the progress of the race. The consensus is that Sir Thomas Lipton has done everything that time and money could accomplish and widespread sympathy for him is shown.

The chief hope expressed in the streets is that Canada will enter the list next year and possibly succeed where the mother country has failed. It seems improbable that another challenger soon will be dispatched from England.

LOUISIANA DEMOCRATS.

Primaries Have Been Ordered to Nominate State Ticket.

New Orleans, Sept. 4.—The Democratic state central committee here ordered primaries to nominate a full state ticket. The date will be selected by a sub-committee appointed to formulate the necessary rules. The same primary will decide who will be United States senator to succeed Senator Foster. Senator Foster will probably be the only candidate.

OIL AND GAS.

Field at Tulsa Has Widened Over One Hundred Per Cent.

Tulsa, I. T., Sept. 4.—Within the last three days the oil and gas field has widened more than 100 per cent. The last thing in the line is at Red Fork, four miles west of here, where Thursday an oil well was brought in. The oil is considered the best in the field. A pump was started Thursday and by actual pumping for a period of seven hours yielded eighty barrels.

Snyder's First Bale.

Snyder, Okla., Sept. 4.—The first bale of cotton that was ever in the town of Snyder was brought in by J. F. Bynum. It was raised twelve miles west of here. The cotton was sold in the seed, bringing $62, premiums were given to the amount of $52 in money and subscriptions to the two local papers for one year.

Quarrelsome Fishermen.

New York, Sept. 4.—Affairs are pretty serious among American fishing schooners, says a dispatch from Burgo, Newfoundland. Lack of bait and certainty that a trip would be almost a dead loss made many foreign fishermen quarrelsome. As some of the American captains left the attitude of foreign crews is reported to have grown ugly towards those who remain and serious trouble is feared.

Engine Disabled.

New York, Sept. 4.—The disabled steamer Barbarossa of the North German Lloyd line arrived in port Friday under her port engine. Captain Montz says on Friday last at 7 o'clock in the morning the starboard engine became disabled and an investigation showed the tail shaft of the propeller was broken. The ship stopped, the outboard section of the shaft secured and the steamer proceeded. There was no excitement among the passengers. Very few knew of the matter until afterward.

Officials Arrested in Serbia.

Belgrade, Sept. 4.—A number of officers at Nish and other garrisons in Serbia have been arrested in connection with the issuance of a proclamation demanding trial by courtmartial of conspirators who were concerned in the assassination of King Alexander, Queen Draga and ministry and threatening to resign their commissions if the demand is refused.

The new store will be under the joint management of Messrs. J. L. Edge and Harry Dillashaw. Both are well known to the people of this and surrounding counties as business men of experience and ability. Both have been with the Mistrots before. As for the Mistrots and their hustling business methods, everybody knows them. The new store will have a general line of dry goods, clothing, notions, shoes, hats, etc., with up-to-date fixtures and Mistrot prices. F. E. Mistrot, formerly of Bryan, is not now with the firm. BEATEN BY WOMEN.

What It Cost John Nulty for Trying to Kiss a Girl.

New York, Sept. 4.—Scores of infuriated women have beaten John Nulty, recently discharged from the navy, into insensibility in Madison Square because he attempted to hug Fortunio Lorito, a pretty girl of fourteen years. Fortunio, with her two sisters, was listening to the band playing in the park when Nulty came along.

"I'm going to kiss you," he said to Fortunio, and grasped her in his arms. The girl screamed for help. Instantly hundreds of women rushed to the scene. They rained blows on Nulty and finally felled him. He was kicked on all sides and his face was torn by sharp finger nails and handfuls of hair was torn from his head.

Nulty cried for mercy, but the women gave none. Men tried to get at him, but the women waved them back.

"We'll attend to him," they said. "Lynch the cur!" shouted the men. The cries of Nulty for aid had sunk to low moans when two officers arrived. After forcing their way through the crowd of struggling women the police found that Nulty had fainted. He was carried to the station and locked up.

STANDS BY MINISTER

State Department Backs Up Representative at Bogota.

SAYS HE IS CORRECT

Every Representation That American Representative Has Made Upon Canal Matter Is Deemed to Be Proper.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Additional instructions have been cabled Mr. Beaupre, the American minister at Bogota, reiterating the position of this government regarding the canal treaty. The state department assumes entire responsibility for every representation of Mr. Beaupre to the Bogota government concerning the treaty and his activity in this direction is heartily endorsed by the president and Secretary Hay. Minister Beaupre's latest instructions advise him that President Roosevelt will not enter into any arrangement with the Colombian government which will hamper his scope of action under the canal law. This government will not indicate what its course of action will be in the event the treaty is rejected.

Dr. Herran, the Colombian charge, will be asked as to the truth of his reported criticism of Minister Beaupre's activity at Bogota. The alleged criticism by Mr. Herran was not well received at the state department.

Mr. Calvo, the Costa Rican minister, spent some time at the state department in conversation with Secretary Hay about the canal situation. The visit was entirely informal. Until Sept. 22, when the time for the ratification of the Hay-Herran treaty expires, the Nicaraguan and Costa Rican governments appreciate that it would be improper for the United States to open negotiations looking to the construction of the canal by another route unless in the meantime the Colombian congress shall formally reject the treaty, which it has not yet done.

"OBEY" OMITTED.

Husband and Wife Sign a Purported Bill of Rights.

Philadelphia, Sept. 4.—Something new in the wedding ceremony formula has been evolved at the marriage of Katherine Fisher of this city and E. S. Ross of Brooklyn. The word "obey" was omitted by the magistrate, and after the certificate had been properly filled out and signed Mrs. Ross produced a document which proved to be a sort of bill of rights in which Ross clearly defines what he concedes to be the personal and inalienable rights of his wife, and in which the latter sets forth the admitted prerogatives and privileges claimed by her husband. The couple with four witnesses signed the document.

DELLA ROBBA.

The Stolen "Descent" From the Crown Has Been Recovered.

Rome, Sept. 4.—The police of Florence succeeded in finding the valuable Della Robbia bas relief, representing the "Descent from the Cross," which was stolen last January from the oratory of the Brotherhood of the Annunciation at Lepin. Several persons have been arrested. They are alleged to have formed an association of thieves to send antique works of art abroad. It is expected other precious objects which have recently disappeared will be recovered.

AGAINST TEXAS COTTON.

Drastic Measures Decided on to Keep it Out of Louisiana.

Shreveport, La., Sept. 4.—At a joint meeting of cotton planters, ginner and cotton oil mill men, held here, a compact was entered into for the mill's not to receive or buy any cotton seed from Texas. The meeting was held under the auspices of the boll weevil committee of the Planters' association. All of the oil mills of the state were represented. Drastic measures will be taken to keep Texas seed out of the market.

TRAIN WRECKED.

Six Persons Were Killed and Twenty-Five Others Injured.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 4.—Six persons were killed and twenty-five injured, one fatally and two seriously, in a wreck on the Southern railway near Yorkville, S. C., Thursday. The dead: Engineer Breckman, Fireman Fred Ryhne, Postal Clerk Smith and three unknown negroes.

All the bodies have been taken from the wreck, save those of the engineer and fireman. The wreck was caused by the collapse of a trestle forty feet high over Fisher creek.

The train consisted of an engine and three cars. It left Rock Hill at 11 o'clock with about forty passengers. When it passed upon the trestle the entire structure gave way, dropping the engine and cars to the bank of the creek, almost fifty feet below. The timbers of the bridge, it is alleged, were rotten and to this fact is ascribed the disaster. The road, now operated by the Southern railway, is in South Carolina, and is the South Carolina and Georgia Extension railroad.

A NEAT BUNKO GAME

HOW THE MAN WHO THOUGHT HE KNEW IT ALL WAS FOOLED.

A Scheme That Worked the Way the Betting West and Gave No Clue as to How the Tip Was Passed to Break or Not to Break the Jug.

"It's a good thing for us, I suppose, that whenever we get it all settled and arranged in our minds that we're too everlastingly bright and crafty to be 'done' by anybody we usually get a fall that takes the perkiness out of us," said a Washington department store buyer who makes frequent trips to New York. "Up to a certain day last week, for example, I had a pretty thorough understanding with myself that there was no old kind of a New York bunko game that I'd bite on. I'd been going to New York too often and for too long a time for anything like that. Well, listen.

"A week ago Monday morning last I was standing after breakfast on the Thirty-sixth street side of the Marlborough hotel, in New York, taking a sun bath for myself and mapping out my programme for the day. Two or three other men were standing near me doing the same.

"Our attention was lazily enlisted as we stood there by the spectacle of a boy wearing a chef's cap and apron recklessly swinging an empty crockery pitcher above his head. The boy was rigged up like a hotel kitchen apprentice.

"What infernal whelps most boys are, anyhow!" remarked a sporty looking man standing near me to a plain looking individual who was standing alongside of him. "Now, just look at that cub fooling with that pitcher. It's a cinch that he'll drop it and smash it to smithereens before he gets to Seventh avenue."

"Oh, I dunno," was the reply of the plain looking man. "I guess the kid knows what he's about. He's got a pretty good clutch on the handle of the pitcher. He'll hang on to it all right."

"Bet you five he drops it before he reaches Seventh avenue," was the quick response of the man with the sporty look.

"I guess I'll take that bet," answered the plain looking man, and he produced his wad. The sporty looking citizen peeled a V from his roll and both men put up their money with the uniformed carriage opener stationed outside the Marlborough. Then they took up the jog together toward Seventh avenue to keep an eye on the boy, who was still swinging the pitcher wildly. I held my ground and watched the proceeding. It looked like a pretty good bet for the plain looking man until, when the boy was only about ten feet from the corner of Seventh avenue, the pitcher flew out of his hand as he was trying some singularly difficult piece of juggling with it and was dashed into a hundred fragments on a doorstep. The sporty looking man and the plain looking individual returned to where I was standing and the former took the two V's from the stakeholder with a grin, saying:

"I thought sure I was going to lose out on that when the kid got so near Seventh avenue without anything happening to the pitcher."

"Two days later I was standing alongside a hotel at the corner of Eighth avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, in Harlem, waiting for a downtown electric car, when I saw that selfsame youngster, with the identical kitchen apprentice's toggery, going along Eighth avenue, again wildly swinging a pitcher. Then I cast my eyes about me, and there, only three feet to the left of me and leaning against an 'L' stanchion, was the sporty looking man. He blinked lazily at me when he saw that I had observed the boy with the pitcher.

"What infernal whelps most boys are, anyway!" he said to me in precisely the same words and the same tone he had used in making the remark a couple of days before to the plain looking man who had lost his V. "Now, just look at that cub fooling with that pitcher. It's a cinch that he'll drop it and smash it to smithereens before he reaches the next corner."

"What a foxy way this fellow has of making a living!" I mused. "But I'll just give him a little run for his money, so I will."

"That's the betting end of it," I said aloud to the sporty looking man, "that I'd be willing to take myself."

"Oh, well," he replied laughingly, "any old thing to pass the time away. It's about an even thing one way or the other, I suppose."

"Just about," said I.

"Well," he said good naturedly, "then I'll bet you a V that he doesn't smash it before he reaches the next corner."

"You're on," said I, and we put up our five spots with the news dealer on the corner.

"This," said I to myself as I fell into step with the sporty looking man, "is like wheeling gran'ma out of a nickel for cookies. There's no way that this crafty con man can pass the tip to that kid not to drop that pitcher, according to the usual frame up, without my getting next to the dodge and calling him down on it. I think I see a new five dollar bat for myself this afternoon."

"My reflections along this pleasant line, however, were interrupted. The boy was already crossing the street, still swinging the pitcher wildly and whistling merrily. He reached the other side and went right along his way, taking tremendous chances with the pitcher and whistling with all the fervor of youth, and I had lost.

"How had the sporty looking man passed the signal to the kid not to drop the pitcher on that occasion? I give it up. I didn't stop to inquire of him. I felt too cheap to stop for any purpose whatever, but swung on board the downtown surface car with a whole lot of the kinks of conceit combed out of me."—Pittsburg Press.

MISS FAY LEE,

President of the Shakespearean Club, Kansas City.

"Your booklet came to my home like a message of health when I had suffered with headache, backache and bearing-down pains. I was weak, nervous and hysterical and had not consulted any doctor, thinking it would pass away in time, but instead I found that the pains increased and were more frequent. I decided to try Wine of Cardui and in a short time was much improved. It seemed to act like a charm. I kept up the treatment and the result was most satisfactory. Words fail to express my gratitude for the suffering that is now saved me. I am in fine health, physically and mentally. I can only say 'thank you', but there is much more in my heart for you."

nervous tension. The nerves soon begin to give way under the strain. You perhaps jump at any unusual disturbance, or laugh or weep, hysterically, at no apparent cause. That is what Miss Fay Lee, 608 1/2 North Seventh Street, Kansas City, Kansas, was coming to when she rescued herself by taking Wine of Cardui. The Wine made her a strong, healthy woman again, as it has made a million other women strong and healthy. By inducing regular menstruation the entire system is relieved of the terrible wasting drains. The ligaments which hold the womb in place are strengthened by a healthy flow and that organ is returned to its normal position. Returning health is the result. This is what Wine of Cardui has done for thousands of the best women in America.

BEARING-DOWN pains are the worst that women know. If you are suffering from this trouble you need not be uncertain about it. The pains in the abdomen and back that feel as if heavy weights were pulling down on the nerves of the stomach are "bearing-down pains". They may not be particularly severe at present but they are growing worse. That headache which nearly drives you distracted now is caused by the terrible
